

5th International Conference on Pharmaceuticals, Nutraceuticals and Cosmetic Science

“Innovative pharmaceuticals, nutraceuticals and cosmeceuticals for better health care”

August 3 – 4, 2017
The Tawana Hotel, Bangkok

Welcome to IPNaCS 2017 in Bangkok!

The Chulalongkorn University Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences is pleased to announce the 5th International Conference on Pharmaceuticals, Nutraceuticals and Cosmetic Science (IPNaCS 2017). IPNaCS is the collaboration of three ASEAN plus one Japan pharmacy schools, i.e. Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM), Universitas Indonesia, Josai University, and Chulalongkorn University. This collaboration will be expanded to other ASEAN pharmacy schools in due course. IPNaCS 2017 is intended to give an opportunity for pharmacy researchers, academics, students, and any interested persons from various institutes in the Asia-Pacific region to present their research work via oral or poster presentations and to share their knowledge and experiences with other participants in six areas as follows:

1. Pharmaceutical chemistry and natural products
2. Pharmaceutical and cosmeceutical technology
3. Pharmacology and toxicology
4. Pharmaceutical biotechnology
5. Nutraceuticals and alternative medicines
6. Social pharmacy and pharmacy practice.

Aside from the presentations, some special lectures will be delivered by distinguished and invited guests. As for this year conference, the theme “Innovative pharmaceuticals, nutraceuticals and cosmeceuticals for better health care” has been emphasized to mirror the innovative research that helps improve the health care as a whole. Additionally, the research will hopefully bring about the further collaborations in this region.

The conference will be held by the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences on August 3 – 4, 2017, at the Tawana Hotel, Surawongse Road, Bangkok, Thailand.
